

2018 Expression of Interest Form

The Ngā Rangatahi a Iwi Forum is a collective of rangatahi representatives that work within the Iwi Chairs' Forum to discuss issues of importance for Māori rangatahi. They meet for three days, every quarter ie. in February, May, August and December at the Iwi Chairs' Forum.

Ngā Rangatahi a Iwi was initially established to align rangatahi perspectives, activities and work within mutual interest areas. The aim is to develop a strategic and collaborative approach to rangatahi initiatives; strengthen rangatahi engagement; involvement; and commit to iwi development and succession.
